COURT ORDERS

(Continued from Page 1) circumstances. Therefore what constitutes the neighborhood and who are the proper defendants must depend upon facts developed at the hearing. If any of the plaintiffs reside within that area, and if the area is residential, they would be entitled to the protection of an injunction even though other plaintiffs shown to reside outside the area would not.

Objection was made that there are "no facts alleged in the complaint to justify the conclusion that the area is residential." The court held, "Whether it is exclusively residential will depend upon the detailed evidence showing the usages to which the various properties in the neighborhood are put."

"It is not necessary to allege the evidence by which the ultimate fact is to be proved."

The court held that allegations that construction of a gasoline station "would detract from the character and setting of the college buildings and campus" should be eliminated. "The college is not a party to the action, and therefore the effect upon it of the construction of a gasoline station cannot be made the basis of injunctive relief for the plaintiffs. Their rights depend upon their own status and not upon the status of others."

HUNTING DEATH

(Continued from Page 1) then he yelled for help. Finally two white men came up and I thought they said they were going to call for an ambulance. We carried Mosten to the fence and laid him down there. After a time I decided the two white men weren't going to call the ambulance and Jones stayed with Boyd while I went to call. The first place there wasn't anyone at home, and then I came on a lady walking like down the street.

"She told me her husband inside the house would let me telephone. I got the operator and she hooked me up to the hospital, and I told them what had happened and said I would meet the ambulance out at the corner (the Gettysburg-Bon-neauville Rd) and carry them on back in. In about 15 minutes the ambulance came along and I led them in to where Boyd was. We ran from the road to the fence and one man from the ambulance held his pulse and the other man looked at him and then they say he's dead and told us to stay there while they went to get the coroner and police. The next thing, you and the officer came along," Lewis said, pointing to Dr. Crist and Officer Yercavage.

Jones said he fired the two remaining shots in his repeating shotgun into the air and shouted to attract attention after Mosten was injured. Two white men appeared. He also said he understood that they would call for an ambulance. He said he and Lewis waited "what seemed like two hours" until they finally decided that the two strangers had not called an ambulance, and Lewis went to search for a telephone.

Topper Testifies
Luther Topper, Gettysburg R. D., Warner Hospital ambulance driver said he had gone to the scene with the ambulance. There he found Mosten dead and had instructed those present not to move the body while he called the coroner and state police.

Dr. Crist said: "I think we can take Mr. Topper's word for it that Mosten was dead when he arrived. Examination of the wounds showed he would have been dead within a short time after he was shot, even if he could have been brought immediately to the hospital. Topper was simply obeying the law when he returned and notified us. No one is permitted to move anything when a death such as this has occurred until the coroner and police arrive."

Members of the coroner's jury included Glenn Shriner, Frank Lind, William Jacobs, James Dillman and G. Henry Roth. Hugh Craig, who had been scheduled to one of the jurors failed to arrive. The jury found the death came from shotgun wounds of the chest and face with the pellets coming "from a shotgun accidentally discharged by Emmanuel Lewis while hunting."

"THE BEST YEARS"

Last night while with my little girl . . . who is just two times one . . . I felt a thrill I can't explain . . . like life had just begun . . . a wonderment enthralled my heart . . . with overflowing bliss . . . a kind of joy that only comes . . . from a baby's tender kiss . . . it seemed as though the whole wide world . . . was paved with love divine . . . because I held a little girl . . . whom God above made mine . . . the lines I write upon this page . . . may not be of the best . . . but they will always be a part . . . of memory's treasure chest . . . for I know that because of her . . . I'll conquer any strife . . . in hopes I can repay her for . . . the best years of my life.

Modern Facilities In Fairfield School Building

First graders have every convenience of home in the new addition to the Fairfield Joint School District school in Hamilton Twp., just west of Fairfield to be dedicated Sunday. Among those conveniences are a low sink, shown in the far corner, and as can be seen against the back wall, coat hangers are low enough for little folk to reach. Each child also has a tiny desk and chair, as shown in the foreground, just the size to accommodate six-year-olds. In a corner along the window is a long table where articles constructed by the youngsters can be placed on display. There is also a library in the room containing books suitable for the primary children.

Larger desks, larger chairs and drawings on the blackboard feature the third grade room at the Fairfield Joint School addition shown above. Above the door is shown the clock, one of which tells the time in each classroom at the school. The American flag is also prominently displayed throughout. In keeping with more modern theory "blackboards" are really "greenboards" to cut down eyestrain.

Few mothers have kitchens as modern as the one used by the students of the Fairfield Joint High School in their home economic instruction. A section of the "kitchen" in the "home ec" room is shown. At the other end of the room is a "living room" to give the students practical experience in arranging furniture, curtains, etc.

Firing Of

United States take firm steps to "revitalize" Nationalist China's Kuomintang. State Department records already published show that Davies said such a revitalized party could be a "significant force" in a coalition government with the Communists—a measure designed to forestall outright Red conquest.

Accused Of "Sabotage"

If Chiang Kai-shek's party could not be "reformed," Davies said, the United States should consider trying to win cooperation from the Chinese Reds.

Davies has been criticized by those who claim U.S. officials did not do enough to help the struggling Chiang regime while it still was on the mainland and that this contributed to the Red victory there. Last year, Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) said the Eisenhower administration "struck out" by not firing Davies.

Patrick J. Hurley, U.S. ambassador to China in 1944-45, accused Davies and others of "sabotaging" the policy of aiding Chiang.

The new investigation of Davies was ordered under the terms of security regulations issued early last year by President Eisenhower.

"Under the present executive order on security," Dulles said, "it is not enough that an employee be of complete and unswerving loyalty. He must be reliable, trustworthy, of good conduct and character."

The possibility of further controversy in the Davies affair arises from several factors:

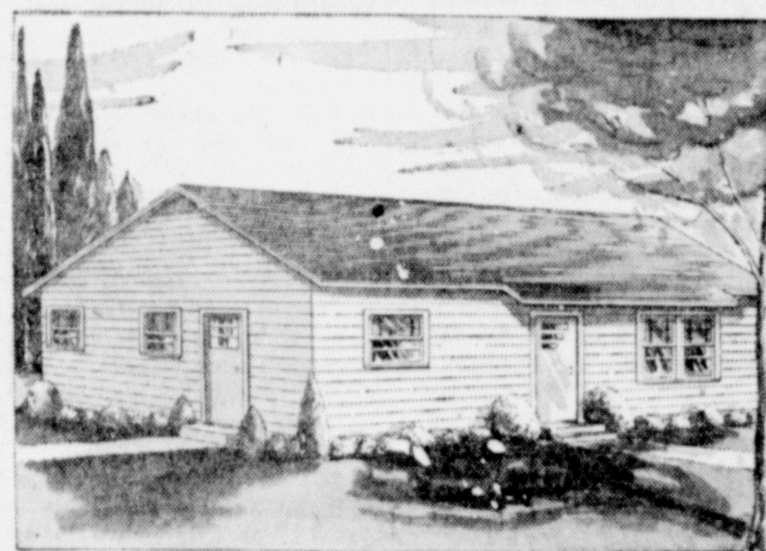

1. Davies said he had asked Dulles to make public "the whole record on my case, including my 1950 recommendations that we seek a preventive showdown with the Soviet Union." This was the first hint that he had made such a proposal.
2. It appeared probable that the Foreign Service Journal, a magazine published by foreign service officers, would also ask publication of the record on the ground that the Dulles announcement yesterday did not make the issues clear for the future guidance of U.S. diplomats.

Newman Speaks Of

Also asking publication was former Ambassador George F. Kennan, a prominent career diplomat, whom Dulles retired last year in consequence of differences over policy. Kennan called Davies' dismissal "ill advised."

Democratic party leaders, returning to power in the next Congress, have indicated they intend to investigate security firings of the Eisenhower administration. The Davies dismissal falls into that category.

Today's Talk

SCHOOL DAYS

When I was attending high school and college, I kept thinking of the time when I would be through with both. I counted, not alone the years, but the days. Now I wish I could have another trial and I would stretch those years! Few periods in life have packed within them so much joy and genuine pleasure as our school days.

I had this emphasized to me upon a recent visit to the college I attended at Ottawa, Kansas, and in being shown over the beautiful grounds of Kansas University at Lawrence. The students looked so healthy and happy, and so carefree. Yet I saw an earnestness in the faces of both young men and women that suggested purpose and a willingness to face responsibilities as they might be offered.

School days do not get their full appreciation until they are over and gone forever. As we look back upon them we realize we have experienced the most precious of our years. But their memory, stored away, keeps renewing itself. Isn't that the way with so much of life—missing the significance of things and events until they are long past?

I feel highly complimented when a teen-ager writes to me. If a young person can see the plan and purpose I am trying to aim for in these brief daily talks, then I am most happy and appreciative. I once received a letter signed by sixteen young girls in a southern college, and a teacher in one of the schools of Columbus, Ohio, sent me a Christmas greeting signed personally by one hundred and fifty pupils!

Leaving high school or college, however, does not end the school days. Every day of life is another day at school, but with a variety of teachers, who give us lessons on things about which we never have heard!

Just Folks

THE NOISY PLACE
When bicycles are lying there
In childhood's heedless disarray,
They make it plain that that is where
The children are allowed to play.

Where vains are rake and hoe and spade
To keep the lawn a thing of grace,
That is the place, where unfraid,
Across the grass the children race.

Where toys are wildly strewn
About
And grown-ups have to walk
With care,
The children know beyond a doubt
That they are always welcome there.

Though noise the nerves may often jar,
Peace sometimes asks too great a price.
To know just where the children are
Is comforting and very nice.

Reject Bids For School Alteration
HARRISBURG — The State Public School Building Authority Thursday rejected bids totalling more than $325,000 received for alteration of the Duryea High School.

The board said it had allocated only $270,000 for the project. The bids were received at a second letting after a previous group of bids was rejected. The board said it will not call for any more bids.

The unofficial low bids were: General construction — Piccotti Construction Co., Old Forge, $228,238; heating — William F. Kirby, Swoyersville, $39,460; plumbing — Walsh Brothers, Pittston, $15,595; electrical — John Vandorick, Scranton, $42,280.

RUSSELL, AIKEN IN AGREEMENT ON CONGRESS

By EDWIN B. HAKINSON

WASHINGTON — Two Senate veterans of opposing parties agreed today that President Eisenhower, a Republican, and the new Democratic Congress should be able to work harmoniously the next two years.

Sen. Russell of Georgia, one of the several Southern Democrats in line for important committee chairmanships when his party takes over, sounded this theme in discussing prospects for legislation under the new 84th Congress.

"Of course there will be some differences," he said in an interview, but the Democrats will give Eisenhower "fair consideration on his legislative proposals even though we may have some of our own to offer."

Sen. Aiken of Vermont, Republican chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee in the last Congress, seemed equally optimistic in telling a reporter:

"We had a pretty good record in the 83rd Congress and I think there's a good chance of improving it in the 84th."

The two leaders spoke after the new post-election harmony wave yesterday had surged forward at least for the time being, on two fronts.

In Washington, Eisenhower called congressional leaders of both parties to a Nov. 17 conference on foreign policy. Senate Majority Leader Knowland of California said after a White House conference the President was eager to get on "cordial and constructive" working terms with the Democrats.

Deaths

BERLIN — Ewald von Kleist, 73, former field marshal and World War II Panzer leader who was serving a war crimes term in Russia.

WINCHESTER, England — Lt. Gen. Edward Felix Norton, 70, leader of the ill-fated 1924 assault on Mt. Everest, and acting governor of Hong Kong in 1940-41. Died Wednesday.

PITTSBURGH — Carl F. Selzer, 47, assistant to the vice president and comptroller of Gulf Oil Corp. Born in Weston, W. Va. Died Friday.

MAY IMPOUND JERSEY VOTES

TRENTON, N.J. — New Jersey Democratic leaders today awaited reports from county and superior courts on their move to have ballots in Tuesday's close senatorial election impounded.

The Democratic high command sent lawyers out yesterday to ask for court orders putting the ballot boxes and voting machines under lock and key in central locations in each county.

The Democrats took the action after the Republicans turned down their bid for a bipartisan request for impoundment.

The Democratic candidate, Charles R. Howell, trails Republican Clifford P. Case by 3,308 votes in unofficial returns. Case's campaign manager has claimed victory but Howell has not conceded.

The Democrats are canvassing the returns to see if a request for a recount is warranted. Until they decide, they are asking that the ballots be impounded.

Railroad Orders 100 Fixed End Gondolas

NEW YORK — The Lehigh Valley Railroad has ordered 100 fixed-end gondolas to supplement 850 cars of a similar type it has purchased since 1950.

James J. Swift, vice president and general manager of the road, said yesterday that the order had been placed with the Bethlehem Steel Co. and that the equipment would be built at Bethlehem's Johnstown, Pa. plant.

Delivery is expected to start in mid-January and continue at the rate of 10 daily.

Swift said the order for the new gondolas, each with a capacity of 70 tons, resulted from "continued growth of iron and steel and allied industries."

Big Light Explodes Near Mrs. Roosevelt

HOLLYWOOD — A big spotlight exploded while Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt was visiting a movie set yesterday. She was unhurt.

The widow of the late president had just walked onto a Paramount Studios set when the 1,000-watt light exploded with a roar during the making of the film "The Desperate Hours."

Humphrey Bogart, one of the stars in the picture, was cut by flying glass, as were three crew members.

Mrs. Roosevelt was only three feet away when the big light exploded. "I ducked," she said.

Convicted Murderer Dies Of Pneumonia

PHILADELPHIA — Convicted murderer Peter Bozzelli, who went on a hunger strike three weeks ago in Eastern Penitentiary, died Wednesday of broncho-pneumonia.

Dr. Nathan Blumberg, prison physician, set the cause of death, but said also Thursday that there was no doubt Bozzelli "became ill as a result of being weakened by lack of food. He just didn't want to eat anything and wouldn't listen to any argument by the prison staff, the priest or even his own brother."

Bozzelli, 44, was convicted of strangling his 24-year-old daughter Gloria, eldest of nine children in a motherless family, in April 1953. He was sentenced to life imprisonment.

THREE NEW YORK CITY AGENCIES BEING PROBED

NEW YORK — Probes of the city's fire, police, and housing departments were under way today.

Graft charges against three Brooklyn fire battalion chiefs expanded into the Police Department yesterday, with Police Commissioner Francis W. H. Adams denouncing "traitors" under his command.

Adams, at promotion ceremonies for 18 officers, told more than 300 of his high-ranking subordinates: "I'll mince no words... We have traitors, men and women, who have not hesitated to sell us out for a few dollars. They have not only degraded themselves but have attempted to destroy us all through their conduct."

May Emaculate
"It will not go on if I have to emaculate this entire department."

In other developments yesterday, Housing Commissioner Bernard J. Givroy said an inquiry was under way "to see if any of our people were involved" in graft-taking charged against the three firemen.

Newspapers reported today that the Health and Air Pollution Control Departments were under scrutiny, but details and official comment were lacking.

Suspended Thursday were Fire Battalion Chiefs Daniel M. Regan, Joseph A. Massaro, and Edward T. Heeg—all charged with accepting $100 each from a contractor who wished to use fire to speed a building demolition job in Brooklyn.

Money "Forced On Them"
Massaro and Regan, quoted as saying the money was "forced on them," filed for retirement. Heeg denied the charges and is subject to departmental trial.

Massaro and Regan both were eligible for retirement, having been with the department more than 25 years. Heeg has been in the department 13 years.

Arrest Director Of Vienna Zoo

VIENNA, Austria. — Police said today the director of Vienna's big Schoenbrunn Zoo has been arrested on suspicion of causing the death of animals by neglect.

Police charged that Dr. Julius Blachetka, held for questioning, sold the animals' carcasses after they died.

Police said Blachetka spent each year about $12,000 on new animals for the zoo, but animals worth about the same amount died in the same period.

Minor Surgery Is Ahead For Marilyn
HOLLYWOOD — Marilyn Monroe is going to the hospital tomorrow for what her doctor says is "minor surgery."

The operation will be performed Monday by Dr. Leon Krohn, gynecologist.

While Miss Monroe is in Cedars of Lebanon Hospital a complete diagnosis will be made to determine the reason for her recent ill health.

The actress, who divorced the one time Yankee clipper, Joe DiMaggio, last Oct. 18, has just completed a movie and is on vacation from Twentieth Century-Fox Studios. DiMaggio, Marilyn said, was not affectionate as a husband. He was not available in San Francisco for comment on her hospitalization.

WANT BALLEM COMMITTED

MEEDIA, Pa. — Counsel for Francis X. Ballem, charged with the "torso slaying" of a former seaman, has asked the Delaware County Court to commit the defendant to the Fairview State Hospital for the criminally insane.

Court-appointed counsel William H. Turner said Ballem should be committed to the institution in view of a report by a sanity commission which examined the 28-year-old Bywood man.

The commission found Ballem capable of standing trial but said he was "mentally ill" and possessed "criminal tendencies." Ballem is scheduled for trial in December. The court took the petition under advisement.

Ballem is accused of the slaying of John Dopral, 3. Parts of the victim's dismembered body were found at a trolley station in nearby Sharon Hill last April 23.

East Berlin

EAST BERLIN — A group of friends from the congregation of Red Run Church made a trip to Bedford County recently to visit Mrs. Fred Diehl, formerly of here, and her family.

Robert Boyer who has returned from several days hunting in Canada with friends from Hampton and Abbotstown, reports having shot two deer and some small game.

Mrs. Paul Lerew Sr. has been spending some time in Groton, Conn., with her daughter, Mrs. Homer S. Bloodworth, who has been a hospital patient following the birth of an infant son, who did not survive.

Harold E. Altland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Altland, is able to continue his class work at the local high school despite the necessity to use crutches due to a fractured foot bone.

The collection of salt-and-pepper sets begun several years ago by Mrs. E. B. Eisenhart, R. 2, is now nearing the 700 mark.

The sets, enclosed in two cabinets in her front room, represent imports from England, Czechoslovakia, China and Japan, along with many American types, from "dime store" to expensive quality.

Mr. and Mrs. Nevin A. Decker spent a few days recently in Patton to visit at the home of her brother, William Bosserman, retired professor and East Berlin native whose health remains poor due to heart trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin J. Nitchman, York, formerly of here, visited local relatives last week following their return from an air trip to Phoenix, Ariz., where they were guests of their younger daughter, Mrs. Lyle H. Bowen. Mrs. Nitchman made the trip alone six weeks ago and was in Arizona for the birth of the Bowsens' second child, William Calvin, and to care for their other son, Lyle Jr., 2. Mr. Nitchman joined his wife at the Bowen home and accompanied her on her return.

Second graders of the East Berlin school, numbering 56, have been moved in part to the borough's new classroom at the Cletus E. Mummert property near the Square. The Mummerts bought the property several weeks ago.

Mrs. Orpheus Myers has reopened her home south of town after spending more than a month with a son, Melvin, R. 2, due to the disablement of her right shoulder, injured in a fall September 26.

The Charles Grim family are moving here shortly from near Abbotstown, having purchased for $9,000 the Abbotstown St. house of Mrs. John L. Burgard, who is now spending an indefinite time near Dover with a daughter, Mrs. Harry Baker.

Mrs. J. Robert Holder, Port Worth, Texas, has been spending some time with her mother and grandfather, Mrs. Florence Roland and John C. Roland, R. 1.

Edgar Chronister, R. 2, who recently passed his 80th birthday, is spending the winter in Harrisburg with a daughter, Mrs. George Wempler, and family.

Michael B. Burgard, R. 3, spent a day in Virginia this week due to business.

Students of Delone High School from Paradise parish were entertained Friday evening by their high school classmates who reside at Paradise Agricultural School. A record dance, with refreshments, was held at the Paradise auditorium. Children of Paradise parochial school are now receiving a hot lunch each noontime in a special dining hall at the school building with the Sisters of St. Joseph preparing and serving the meal, with older pupils assisting. Although this lunch is a non-profit project supplied by the school, many parents have been contributing to a fund to assist its continuance.

If you shudder to think of the vitamins and minerals going into your garbage can when you have lettuce and other salad materials that are just too passe to be tempting, use them this way. Tear the salad greens into pieces and cook them with a little bouillon and butter or margarine. Makes an extra "vegetable" with your main course, and may include celery, carrots, escarole, or whatever you happen to have in the refrigerator.

Minor Surgery Is Ahead For Marilyn
HOLLYWOOD — Marilyn Monroe is going to the hospital tomorrow for what her doctor says is "minor surgery."

The operation will be performed Monday by Dr. Leon Krohn, gynecologist.

While Miss Monroe is in Cedars of Lebanon Hospital a complete diagnosis will be made to determine the reason for her recent ill health.

The actress, who divorced the one time Yankee clipper, Joe DiMaggio, last Oct. 18, has just completed a movie and is on vacation from Twentieth Century-Fox Studios. DiMaggio, Marilyn said, was not affectionate as a husband. He was not available in San Francisco for comment on her hospitalization.

Love-Sick Elephant Shot By Soldiers

AUGSBURG, Germany. — Bosco, a dangerously love-sick circus elephant, was shot down last night by U.S. soldiers manning 50 calibre machine guns mounted on two jeeps.

The troops had been called on to guard the four-ton beast after he went berserk Thursday, breaking loose and injuring his trainer.

Fearful the 19-year-old bull elephant might kill somebody, the owner asked the soldiers to destroy him. Circus men blamed Bosco's bad temper on his lack of a girl friend.

Unbeaten Mechanicsburg Downs Warriors 26-0 Who Finish With 3-6 Record

Gettysburg High School finished its 1954 football season with a record of three wins and six losses after dropping a 26-0 decision to Mechanicsburg High School at Mechanicsburg Friday night. It was the ninth straight win for the unbeaten Wildcats.

For Coach Howard Shoemaker, it marked the first losing season he has had since assuming the head coach post at Gettysburg High School in 1950. However, many of this year's gridirons who showed definite improvement in the last three games will be returning next year and could make the Warriors a South Penn Conference threat once more.

Those seniors who donned their uniforms for the final time Friday night were: Halfback Ronnie Williams; end, Jim Evers; guard, Ted Crouse; end, Paul Evans; center, Carl Westerdaal; guard, Bill Bushman; end, Cloyd Spence; tackle, Richard Hefflin, and end, Gene Boyd.

The Wildcats wasted little time in scoring their first touchdown. After Fisher returned Bob Bonard's kickoff to the Mechanicsburg 35, the home team moved in high gear. John Mackey hit center for 5, and Brackbill kept the ball to advance six more. A pass from Brackbill to Don Woolford took the ball to the 14. Don Pottelger moved eight through center and Brackbill tossed to Pottelger for the touchdown.

Warriors Threaten
Gettysburg advanced well following the kickoff but its drive sputtered out on the Mechanicsburg 15 when a Glen Weishaar-Williams pass fell incomplete. Gorman took the Wildcats kickoff back to the Gettysburg 37. After Williams drove through center for 11, Fred Furney picked up one in the same spot. Joe Tonsel netted three through left tackle, and Williams took a pitchout and ran around left end for 39 to the Mechanicsburg 19. On successive plays, Tonsel and Williams lost two. A pass from Weishaar to Williams carried to the 15, but another pass was incomplete.

Mechanicsburg retaliated immediately by driving 85 yards for another score, with Mackey dashing around right end for the six pointer.

Joe Dearing returned the following kickoff to the Gettysburg 34. Williams, Furney and Weishaar collaborated for a first down on the Warrior 45. On two plays, Stough advanced nine yards, but again the drive was nipped as Weishaar failed to gain on a quarterback sneak and the Warriors punted to Mechanicsburg.

Wildcats Get Break
An official's failure to call the ball dead after the carrier was on the ground gave the Wildcats their third touchdown. Mechanicsburg recovered a fumble on the Gettysburg 24. Brackbill took the ball on an option and ran to his right where he was tackled and on the ground, from where he lateraled to Pottelger who went the remaining distance to score.

The Warriors played a greatly improved defensive game in the final half and repulsed Mechanicsburg three times within their own 15.

A fine 44-yard punt return by Pottelger to the Gettysburg three set up the final tally. Woolford crashed through the right side for the score.

Coach Johnny Fredericks and Faculty Manager J. MacKay Kelley of Mechanicsburg were presented frame certificates for their contribution to Mechanicsburg sports at half-time ceremonies. Captains, honorary captains or representative of captains for all teams since 1937 were on hand to greet both Fredericks and Kelley.

VPI BEATS GW AS GOBBLERS MAKE BOWL BID

By ORLO ROBERTSON

The unbeaten but once-tied Gobblers of Virginia Polytechnic Institute put in a bid for a bowl game today hours before the nation's top-ranked college football teams swung into action in contests that could go a long ways toward deciding the lineups for the Jan. 1 games.

VPI defeated George Washington 20-13 in one of last night's top games for its seventh victory. The only blot on the Gobblers' record is a 7-7 tie with William and Mary.

Only unimpressive Waynesburg and traditional rival, VMI, remain to bar VPI's first undefeated season in the school's modern history.

The underdog Boston College Eagles uncorked a fine running attack to whip Marquette 13-7 in near-freezing weather at Milwaukee and Kansas State romped over Drake 53-18 in other leading contests last night.

A "Must" For Arkansas
Of the nation's top 10, Ohio State and Arkansas — both undefeated and bowl-conscious — face the biggest problems today. A defeat by Pitt's surging Panthers wouldn't injure the Buckeyes' Rose Bowl chances but it would be mighty humiliating for the Big Ten team, ranked second nationally.

But Arkansas, No. 4, has a "must" game with Rice. The Porks, aiming to represent the Southwest Conference in the Cotton Bowl, cannot afford to lose this conference fray. They are primed to stop Rice's Dick Moegele.

Baylor, still in the Southwest Conference title picture, is a 4-point favorite to take Texas in the nationally televised game of the day. There may be plenty of fireworks in this traditionally wild and wooly encounter.

Only Purdue of the other teams in the top 10, figure to have any difficulty. The No. 8 ranked Boilermakers face Iowa's tough line at Iowa City.

Sellout For Army-Yale
No. 1 ranked UCLA, with a powerful point-making machine geared to Primo Villanueva, is a three-touchdown choice over Oregon at Los Angeles. Oklahoma's No. 3 ranked Sooners should romp over Iowa State, as should the Irish of Notre Dame, No. 5, over winless Pennsylvania.

Miami of Florida, ranked sixth and one of the fading group of unbeaten major outfits, is a slight choice over Auburn at Birmingham.

Once-beaten Army, undefeated since losing to South Carolina in its opening game, and Yale, unbeaten but tied by Colgate, play before 70,000 at New Haven. It's the first time since 1937 that Yale Bowl has seen a sell-out. Off comparative scores, the seventh-ranked Cadets should have no trouble.

Mississippi, No. 9, has a breather against Memphis State and Southern California, No. 10, shouldn't find Stanford any barrier to a trip to the Rose Bowl.

SHORE SCORING HONORS
JOHNSTOWN, Pa. — Scoring honors in the Pennsylvania State Teachers Colleges football conference are shared today by Paul Maley of California and Joe Bizzaro of Lock Haven. Each has 42 points.

Maley's team is slated to play its final conference game today. Bizzaro's team has two games to go—Mansfield today and Bloomsburg Nov. 20.

The unbeaten Delone Catholic freshman football team notched its fifth straight victory Thursday afternoon by defeating the Scotland Jayves 22-7 at Scotland.

Wierman raced 30 yards in a pass play in the second period for Delone's first score and Mann plowed over for the first of his two extra points. A safety was gained by the Squires in the third period when Groff tackled Beichtel in the Scotland end zone. Later in the same period Bucky Washington scampered 30 yards with Mann adding the point. The final Delone score in the last period came on a 40-yard run by Mann.

Scotland averted a shutout when Ford raced 50 yards in the closing seconds.

Slade Overpowered
As for Slade, the New York State champion was disgusted with his work. He said the seven month layoff hurt him. Slade hadn't fought since last April 26 when he fractured his left hand beating Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson.

Slade simply was overpowered. At 17½, Slade gave away 31½ pounds to Baker. The aggressive New York Negro had to punch at long range and get on his bicycle to keep out of range of the powerful Baker counters.

While Slade was a moving, bobbing, weaving target, Baker kept plodding around the ring, shooting strong right and left hand counters that shook Slade to his toes.

The decision was unanimous with Judge Paul Stille carding it 6-2-2; Judge Bill Yancey 7-2-1; Referee Zach Clayton 6-3-1. The Associated Press scored it 7-2-1.

Judge Gets Facts About This Juror
CLEVELAND, (AP) — Common Pleas Judge Benjamin D. Nicola, examining prospective jurors yesterday for a robbery case, asked a woman what her husband's occupation was.

"I have no husband," she replied, "I'm separated."

"Well, now that you're separated, what does your husband do," the judge continued.

"I don't know where he is or what he's doing," she said.

"Well, then, before you were separated, what did your husband do," the judge persisted.

"He didn't do anything," she said, "that's why we separated."

Judge Gets Facts About This Juror
CLEVELAND, (AP) — Common Pleas Judge Benjamin D. Nicola, examining prospective jurors yesterday for a robbery case, asked a woman what her husband's occupation was.

"I have no husband," she replied, "I'm separated."

"Well, now that you're separated, what does your husband do," the judge continued.

"I don't know where he is or what he's doing," she said.

"Well, then, before you were separated, what did your husband do," the judge persisted.

"He didn't do anything," she said, "that's why we separated."

Tony DeMarco Meets Pat Manzi Tonight
BOSTON (AP)—Tony DeMarco, the seventh ranked welterweight from Boston's North End, meets slugger Pat Manzi of Syracuse tonight in a nationally televised 10 round bout at the arena.

DeMarco risks a string of 14 consecutive victories against his free-swinging opponent in a match to be beamed across the nation (ABC) at 9 p.m., EST, with New England blacked out.

Slade Overpowered
As for Slade, the New York State champion was disgusted with his work. He said the seven month layoff hurt him. Slade hadn't fought since last April 26 when he fractured his left hand beating Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson.

Slade simply was overpowered. At 17½, Slade gave away 31½ pounds to Baker. The aggressive New York Negro had to punch at long range and get on his bicycle to keep out of range of the powerful Baker counters.

While Slade was a moving, bobbing, weaving target, Baker kept plodding around the ring, shooting strong right and left hand counters that shook Slade to his toes.

The decision was unanimous with Judge Paul Stille carding it 6-2-2; Judge Bill Yancey 7-2-1; Referee Zach Clayton 6-3-1. The Associated Press scored it 7-2-1.

TWO O'BRIENS PLAY AGAINST MOUNT SQUAD

Coach Jim Phelan's Mount Saint Mary's College basketball team, which opened drills on October 25, gets down to rough work on November 13 and 14 when the Mountaineers face the Aberdeen Ordinance team boasting the two ex-Seattle stars, Johnny and Eddie O'Brien, in the season's first scrimmage sessions.

The Sunday scrimmage will be a prelude for the press in which the new Mountaineer outfit will display its wares for area sports writers and broadcasters attending Press Day on the Mount St. Mary's campus.

On November 19 Phelan will take his team into familiar surroundings when the cagers tap off against the Quantico Marines at Quantico in an exhibition game. It was at Quantico that Phelan gained new laurels after stardom at LaSalle. As a member of the Marines, Phelan led the Devil Dogs to the Marine finals and was named most valuable player in the tourney. On November 23, the cagers close their pre-season work with a scrimmage against Lebanon Valley College.

Many Vets Return
While Phelan is making his debut as head man of Mount St. Mary's basketball, nine lettermen including five starters and the top four reserves from last year's Mason Dixon championship team have another season of play. Topping the list is big Sal Angelo, 6'4" pivot man twice an All Conference and All Tourney center; Jack Sullivan, who won All Conference and All Tourney honors last year as a freshman; Bill Stanley, an All-Tourney choice at guard; and Frank Smith, second team All Tourney. Forward Charles O'Donnell who missed last year's Tourney because of an injury is back as are reserves Frank Swaine, Ed Bels, George Donohue, and Jack McGrath.

Pushing the varsity are a flock of highly touted freshmen including five school boy captains. Best of the lot seems to be Bill Williams, an eighteen year old 6'4" forward from Middletown High School in New York, an All Star choice in his district, and Phil Wachtel, a 6'3" eighteen-year-old back court man who captained last year's championship team at Cham-laine High School on Long Island.

So-Called Automatic Action Of Today's Cars Is Largely Up To Driver; Guides Car's Efficiency

By FREDERICK C. RUSSELL
Too bad worm drive didn't make the grade for passenger cars. It would have been handy for wiggling through traffic congestion.

Control Up To Driver
It is not generally known that much of the so-called automatic action of today's car is very largely controlled by the driver himself. Because this isn't understood there is greatly reduced efficiency from the various automatic devices and power assists.

We see this most clearly demonstrated on the automatic drives. On one system the driver can use the "low" setting of the selector lever instead of the kick-down feature of the accelerator for better uphill driving but only if the car is traveling fairly fast. On one of the automatic transmissions the upshifting is controlled by the amount of pressure on the accelerator pedal. On one of the current cars with power braking the driver can slow down the car or even stop it under certain simple conditions without actually bringing the power "assist" into operation. It is the same with the power steering feature of several cars.

Operation of the acceleration pump of the carburetor is entirely a driver-controlled affair. To get full effect from this device the accelerator pedal has to be pumped abruptly. Doing it twice in succession will give two slugs of fuel pumped into the carburetor throat and thus additional pick-up in many cases.

Check That Converter
As we enter the season when anti-freeze is a lively and appropriate subject owners of cars with torque converters of the water cooled type should keep in mind that there is an increase in the capacity of the cooling system by reason of this feature. Not all torque converters have water circulation for added cooling, so it is important to know your own car more intimately. In addition to calling for a little more anti-freeze the water cooled torque converter also calls for a little additional checking for possible leakage. And while you're at it don't forget the under-seat hot water heater.

Worth Keeping In Mind
Some light grease used on the hood lock and its controls will ease the job of lifting this big chunk of metal and will make possible closing the hood without so much slamming.

It is all right to use a whisk broom to clean embedded dirt off that convertible top, but don't overdo it. The manufacturers suggest washing the top with a mild soap and water after such brushing.

Contact points of the generator regulator can be cleaned with a file, but always disconnect the battery before the job.

Mechanic Joe Speaking:
"Since there are various ways of doing almost any job on a car there is variation in the time and

110 At Consistorial Banquet At Fairfield

One hundred ten ministers and consistory members of the former Gettysburg Classis area of the Mercersburg Synod attended the Consistorial conference and banquet Thursday in the Fairfield community hall. The meal was served by the women of St. John's Evangelical and Reformed Church of Fairfield.

Dr. Odell Leonard, Lexington, N. C., was the principal speaker. Singing was led by the Rev. Archie Rohrbach, New Oxford. The host pastor, the Rev. Mark Michael, was the toastmaster. The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. G. Howard Koons of Littlestown.

effort expended. This explains why there is a corresponding difference in charges for the work. It must also be remembered that certain obstacles may develop.

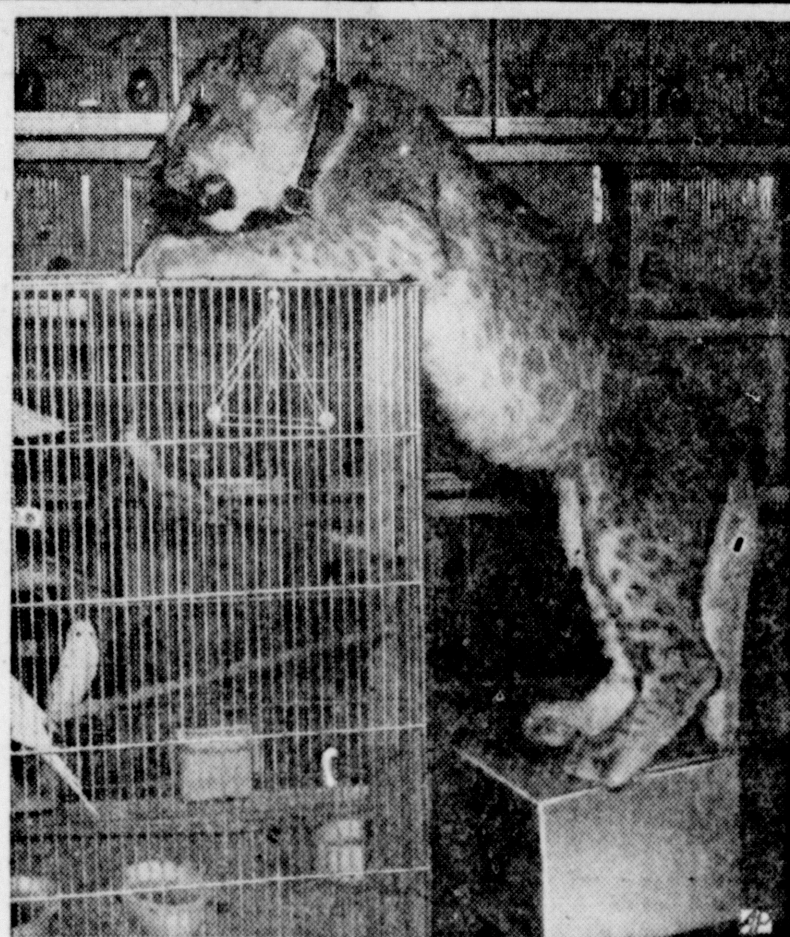

"There also are degrees of servicing not always too clearly indicated by general headings such as adjusting brakes, tuning the motor or cleaning the cooling system. Before the brakes of some jobs can be properly adjusted they virtually have to be rebuilt. Cooling system cleaning may run into many details such as replacing the water distribution tube, the water pump and the radiator core."

Explaining That Pull
When the car pulls to the left or right during braking, or even when just rolling along the road under power, there are several possible explanations. One that usually is overlooked is a too tight rear spring shackle. Another is a weak coil spring on the side of the car to which the pull is directed.

In the case of old cars there may be pull to the left during braking if the line to the right front brake is clogged. Pull is also a tire condition, it being essential that front tires be maintained at equal pressures and that they have similar treads.

For Future Reference
Having the engine speed up when the brakes are applied was the puzzle a friend of mine faced when on a recent trip. It really got him down, especially as several mechanics en route merely scratched their heads and professed not to know the cause. A check was made of the throttle linkage to see if it in any way interfered with the brake pedal and leverage, but this shed no light whatever on the situation. You have probably guessed that the mechanic who solved it happened to note that the engine was unusually loose in its moorings so that when the car was being sharply decelerated the motor tipped forward a bit and changed the throttle's position.

Trouble From The Road
While it is true that the throttle linkage control for an automatic transmission does not normally change unless the carburetor is replaced or the linkage adjustment changed there can be disturbance as a result of a stone being tossed from the road. The effect of any such change is to affect the shift points adversely. While the car will still operate the transmission will not normally upshift as it should and there will be a situation very similar to sluggish motor operation.

ONE FOR THE BIRDS—The birds were happy to be caged when Simba, 3-month-old lion cub, was given free moment in pet section of New York department store.

High Cost Of Impatience
A friend who was aboard a large bus the other night tells an odd story of how the driver of a passenger car so deliberately held up the procession that an accident nearly followed the bus driver's final attempt to get by. By this time he was way over to the left side of the road with passengers shouting at him to be careful. Finally he caught sight of a local police officer and asked him to catch up with the offending driver and have him arrested. Normally the offending driver should have been in for a rough time but when the officer explained that it would be necessary for someone in the bus to prefer charges the whole thing took on a different picture. Since the police officer had not seen anything and since there was no evidence of damage or injury the case against the offender was so weak they had to let him go free.

There must be some sort of lesson in this for anyone who allows himself to get out of patience with another driver.

No Time To Relax
Owners who figure that as the car grows older it requires less in the way of better fuel and oil should consider the fact that quite the opposite may be the case. If the engine is loading up with carbon, for instance, and showing a tendency toward overheating the best gasoline will be needed to check pinging. And as for oil it is when ordinary lubricants fail to stand up that something above average may be needed to meet the emergency.

In The Motor Mail
Q. There has been no tampering with the throttle linkage on the carburetor yet the shift points for the automatic transmission have started to go wrong. Does this mean that a transmission overhaul is in order? H. K. N.

A. Not necessarily. Have them check the linkage which may have been damaged by a stone tossed up from the road.

Q. I recently ran out of gasoline even though the gauge indicated that the tank was a quarter full. It seems to be accurate enough from that point to the full mark. This happened after a camping trip. Wm. L. J.

A. Take a look under the car. I think you'll find that there is a bad dent in the bottom of the tank. On your trip you may have hit a large stone when parking off paved roads.

Q. My car has developed the habit of pulling to the left when the brakes are applied, although we have checked the linings and brake pistons carefully. The car is 14 years old. R. B.

A. In a case like this age may tell the story. I would check the right front brake line which may resonator which looks like a small extra muffler on some cars? K. N. B.

A. It is a special muffler which served merely to check a little noise, thus taking roughness out of the exhaust. It offers little back-pressure.

Q. Is there a simple test for shock absorbers? I do not believe that the rear shocks on my car have sufficient fluid, but the trouble could be with the springs. R. G.

A. You have merely to rock the car up and down. Specifically put your weight on the right side of the rear bumper and depress the springs. When you remove your weight the car should level off immediately and not bounce up and down. Do this at the left side of the rear bumper to check the other rear shock absorber. Always repeat a test like this several times.

Q. I have been checking over the ignition of my car and cannot find where the resistor for the radio is located. On previous cars I have owned this was on the distributor. N. M. McB.

A. On your particular car the resistor is built into the rotor of the distributor.

Q. I am having trouble with warped brake drums. First one of the front drums and now one of the rear ones. They do not seem to be of light stock, yet I understand that they may be more likely to warp after being trued because truing thins them. F. F. D.

A. You are over-using the brakes. Perhaps you have a power booster or are in the habit of using the brakes too vigorously, especially at low car speeds.

Mr. Russell will answer questions regarding the safe care and operation of your car. Just address him at 254 Fern St., West Hartford 7, Conn., and enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope for a personal reply. There is no charge.

WOULD OPPOSE RIPPER BILL TO HAND LEADER PUC CONTROL

By LEONARD A. UNGER
HARRISBURG (AP)—Sen. Joseph M. Barr, Democratic state chairman, said Friday he would oppose any "ripper" proposals to give Gov.-elect George M. Leader control of the Public Utility Commission.

The five-member PUC, long the butt of Democratic criticism, is the only commission or board that could stay in Republican hands after the new Democratic governor is inaugurated next Jan. 18.

"As far as I'm concerned, I'm against any plan to 'rip' out the Public Utility Commission as long as its members protect the interests of the public," Barr told a newsman.

Vacancy In April
But even an organized Democratic effort to wipe out the PUC and replace it with another agency is destined for likely defeat as long as the Democrats fail to completely control the next Senate as they will the House.

The PUC, under a State Supreme Court decision, is considered an arm of the Legislature. Its members, although appointed by the governor, cannot be fired except for cause.

The first PUC appointment Leader can make to fill an expired term is to replace Thomas C. Egan, Philadelphia. Egan's term expires in April, 1955.

Other Members
Other PUC members and the date their terms end are P. Stephen Stahnecker, Philadelphia, 1957; John B. Conly, Pittsburgh, 1959; Chairman Leon Schwartz, Nanticoke, 1961; and Henry Houck, Shenandoah, 1963. The chairman gets $15,000 a year; the other members $14,000.

Deputy Atty. Gen. Harrington Adams said laws creating all other state agencies or commissions permit the incoming governor to fire the Republican members almost immediately.

These include (with annual salaries of members in parentheses): the Milk Control Commission ($10,000); Turnpike Commission ($13,000); Workmen's Compensation Board ($11,000); Athletic Commission ($7,000); Board of (movie) Censors ($5,000); Labor Relations Board ($8,500); Liquor Control Board ($14,000); Board of Parole ($11,500); Securities Commission ($10,000); Tax Equalization Board ($11,000); Unemployment Compensation Board of Review ($11,000);

Sommerlatte Leave Moscow

MOSCOW (AP)—Mrs. Karl E. Sommerlatte, declared an "undesirable person" by the Soviet government after a workers' club scuffle, left Moscow Friday for the United States.

Accompanied by her husband, the second secretary of the American Embassy, Mrs. Sommerlatte boarded a Russian plane enroute to New York.

The Russians had accused her of "hooliganism," charging she struck a workman in an argument Oct. 25 over where to take pictures of some Russian children. Mrs. Houston Stiff, wife of the assistant U.S. naval attaché, said she actually hit the workman in an effort to free Mrs. Sommerlatte.

Sommerlatte has been given a new assignment in Washington.

Civil Service Commission ($25 a day but no more than $3,000 a year).

To Be Made Gradually
The Fish Commission, Game Commission and State Council of Civil Defense are also subject to immediate Democratic control but their members receive no salaries. Both Leader and Barr, however, have indicated that replacements will be made gradually so as not to interfere with state government operations.

The huge state patronage barrel will be spilled wide open for the first time in 16 years.

Only 13,000 On Civil Service
Of 60,000 state employees, only 13,000 have civil service protection. The bulk of the remaining jobs are currently Republican-sponsored and subject to eventual Democratic control.

Dr. Francis B. Haas, superintendent of public instruction, is the only present Republican cabinet member who is safe beyond Leader's inauguration. His term does not expire until next August.

Last available figures from the Budget Bureau show there are approximately 42,000 state workers on regular payrolls, plus another 18,000 who work on a per diem basis.

Interesting Figures
Of the 42,000, a total of 5,650 come from Dauphin County, seat of the State Capital.

Other counties which have more than 1,000 persons on the state payroll include Philadelphia 4,354; Allegheny 3,519; Luzerne 1,791; Lackawanna 1,493; Montgomery 1,444; Cumberland 1,322; Schuylkill 1,228; Berks 1,130; Washington 1,089; and Chester 1,018. The annual payroll for the 42,000 workers on regular payrolls is 145 million dollars. The approximately 18,000 per diem employees receive about 3 1/2 million dollars a month. Two-thirds of them are employed by the Highway Department.

'DIXON-YATES' CONTRACT SEEN AS BASIC ISSUE

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP)—This is a quick rundown on why the Dixon-Yates contract is in such bitter dispute.

The TVA, the Tennessee Valley Authority, which was created early in President Roosevelt's New Deal, among other things pumps power to consumers in a huge Southern area.

Roosevelt called it a "yardstick" to show what electric power costs should be. Private utility companies protested it was unfair to compare their costs with those of a government-backed agency.

Argument Alive
The argument over public vs. private power has never died: Should the government get deeper into the power field through a bigger TVA or should TVA be eliminated, or at least limited, in favor of private power companies?

TVA now has an added drain on it because of the power it supplies to atomic energy plants. And TVA officials wanted new power plants started in 1955 to meet needs in 1957.

TVA could build and own them or a private company could do that and sell power to TVA. In either case the taxpayers would foot the bill since Congress would have to vote the money.

President Eisenhower let his feelings about TVA be known in June 1953, when he publicly cited it as an example of "creeping socialism" although he said he wasn't out to destroy it.

TVA officials urged that Eisenhower, in his budget message to Congress in January 1954, ask for money to build a new TVA power plant at Fulton, Tenn. Eisenhower didn't.

Instead, his administration, with his approval later in 1954 negotiated a contract with a private utility group known as Dixon-Yates to build its own steam power plant at West Memphis, Ark. It would supply TVA with power to make up for TVA power given to the atomic plants. The government would have to pay for this private power, of course.

Under the contract Dixon-Yates would invest $1/2 million dollars of its own funds in the West Memphis plant—its cost would be 107 million dollars—and obtain the rest through long-term bonds.

The basic charges to the government, figured at $20,746,000 a year, would include all taxes, interest of 3 1/2 per cent on the bonds, and a specified yearly return of 9 per cent on the original Dixon-Yates investment of $1/2 million.

The Atomic Energy Commission and the Budget Bureau, starting last December, carried the ball in finally working out the contract with Dixon-Yates. Gordon R. Clapp, former TVA chairman whom Eisenhower did not reappoint when his term expired last May, said neither Eisenhower nor AEC Chairman Lewis L. Strauss ever consulted him.

Calls Fair
The administration contends the contract is a fair and practical way to get needed power in the TVA area without spending government money for another TVA steam plant. Eisenhower says the public is perfectly and splendidly protected.

The contract's critics have said plenty, none more than Clapp. He says Eisenhower was sold a bill of goods by the Budget Bureau. This contract, he says, would cost the government more than five million dollars a year more than the cost of energy TVA could supply from its proposed Fulton, Tenn., plant.

Clapp said the contract is intended to saddle TVA with higher costs and push its rates up so that TVA will no longer be a "yardstick" to keep private power rates down.

COOPER MAY GET U.S. POST
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John Sherman Cooper, Kentucky Republican defeated for re-election by former Vice President Alben Barkley, is being discussed in diplomatic circles as a possible U.S. ambassador to India.

The name of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt also has bobbed up in speculation. Most guessing, however, is that the post will go to a Republican.

The present ambassador, career diplomat George V. Allen, is en route back to New Delhi after consultations at the State Department where he was informed he is to be reassigned.

Because of India's increasing importance in the Asiatic struggle against communism, Eisenhower and Dulles are reported particularly anxious to name someone who could establish friendly work-

Prime Ministers Louis St. Laurent of Canada, Jawaharlal Nehru of India and Mohammed Ali of Pakistan immediately announced they would attend the Jan. 31 meeting.

NURSE FOUND SLAIN IN LAB OF HOSPITAL

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP)—An attractive 21-year-old student nurse was criminally assaulted and slain last night in a basement laboratory at the Kalamazoo State Hospital for mental patients.

Hospital workers found the body of Marilyn Kraai in the locked hydrotherapy laboratory of the hospital administration building after a search, started when she failed to meet other nurses for supper. Coroner Horace Cobb said the tall, blonde nurse had been criminally assaulted and then strangled with a red, hospital issue necktie.

Throat Bruised
Most of the girl's clothing had been ripped off, but state police said there were no signs of a struggle in the laboratory where her body was found. The only outward sign of violence was the girl's bruised throat.

Police said a hospital employee and a patient have been taken into custody for questioning. Both may take lie detector tests today.

Hospital officials said a ring of keys known to be in Miss Kraai's possession yesterday also was missing. The keys gave access to several hospital laboratories and wards.

Police said her assailant may have taken the keys and then locked the girl in the laboratory to prevent early discovery of her body.

Called 'Faithful Nurse'
Riley Stewart, Kalamazoo police detective, theorized Miss Kraai may have gone to the laboratory to pick up something she forgot. Her assailant apparently grabbed

See No Startling Shifts In Policy

LONDON (AP)—West European editors agreed today that the American election results would bring no startling shifts in U.S. foreign policy. They assured their readers President Eisenhower's personal prestige remained undiminished despite Democratic party gains.

Some papers interpreted the voting outcome as a setback for Republican isolationists and the followers of Sen. McCarthy.

A few papers thought that on domestic issues Eisenhower will find as much cooperation from the Democrats as he has had from members of his own Republican party during the last two years.

Singer Dick Haymes Loses On Appeal

WASHINGTON (AP)—Singer Dick Haymes Friday lost his appeal to the Board of Immigration Appeals from a deportation order.

An attorney for Haymes, who now lives at Crystal Bay, Nev., announced that a further fight against the deportation order will be made in the Federal District Court here. The 36-year-old singer was ordered deported in March of this year after a hearing before an Immigration Service inquiry officer.

her by the throat and forced her into the laboratory, he said.

Hospital employees told police they heard no screams or indications of a struggle.

Sister Mary Xavier, superintendent of the Grand Rapids school, described the girl as a "faithful nurse, of engaging personality, well liked by her fellow students and hospital patients and an excellent person in every way."

VET VOTES TO DECIDE 2 SEATS IN LEGISLATURE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Two seats in the 1955 State House of Representatives will not be decided at least until Nov. 12.

The winning margins in the two contests in York and Luzerne counties might be provided by military and absentee ballots cast by bedridden and hospitalized veterans. The ballots, cast not later than last Tuesday, probably will be opened in the county election bureaus a week from yesterday.

In each case the total unofficial count of ballots cast Tuesday gave one candidate a margin of six votes. In Luzerne County 73 soldier and absentee ballots were sent out while in York County the total was 28.

A canvass of original figures in Luzerne County's second legislative district showed Republican Harry Butler, Wilkes-Barre, ahead of Stanley Mehochick, West Ashley 8,770 to 8,765. Originally Mehochick was believed in front 8,775 to 8,770, a margin of five votes.

Trails By 6 Votes
Final unofficial tabulation of the vote in York County's third district showed incumbent Republican Rep. George Goodling, veteran of four successive terms in the House, trailing his Democratic opponent, Richard O. Hass by six votes.

"The law says that all military and absentee votes must reach county election bureaus by 10 a. m. Nov. 12 to be valid," explained

Get Letters From Sons Missing Years

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—Two Minnesota families whose sons have been missing nearly two years since a B-29 was shot down in the Korean War received first letters from them Thursday.

T. Sgt. Howard M. Brown, St. Paul, and A. 2c Harry Benjamin Jr. of Worthington both reported, in letters postmarked in Peiping in early September, that they were well.

Albert E. Eberman, director of the State Elections Bureau. He said that there is no specific time county bureaus must open and count the ballots after that date.

"However, the bureau has set a deadline of Nov. 22 for the filing of all returns by county bureaus." Eberman added that he would "consider it normal" that most county officials opened and counted the absentee and military ballots the same day of the deadline, Nov. 12.

"We sent out over 3,000 of those ballots and there's no telling how many more were sent out directly by the county concerned," Eberman said.

Goodling, a Loganville fruit grower, was chairman of the House Game and Forestry Committee in the 1953 session. His opponent, Hass, is a political newcomer and an insurance broker. He lives in York.

Mehochick, making a first try for public office, is a repairman and a school director at Ashley. Butler and Mehochick are fighting for the seat formerly held by Rep. William P. Kohl, a Republican from Luzerne, who did not run for reelection.

MAY ABOLISH MILK CONTROL COMMISSION

PITTSBURGH (AP) — State Sen. Elmer J. Holland (D-Allegheny) said today his chances of having the State Legislature abolish the Milk Control Commission "are better than ever."

Holland, elected this week to his fourth consecutive four-year term from the 38th Senatorial District, long has been a bitter foe of the commission.

He has introduced legislation seven times to abolish the three-man board. Each time, the Republican-dominated Senate let the bill die in committee.

"We've got almost half of the Senate Democratic now as the result of the elections," Holland declared in an interview. "Now, I think my chances of abolishing the commission are better than ever. However, we may have to cross party lines and perhaps some Republican senators will support my bill. It will be the first piece of legislation I'll introduce when the Senate meets next January."

Plan New Legislation

Holland said if he is unsuccessful in his efforts to have the commission abolished he will attempt to have legislation passed "which will help the milk consumers of the state." He added:

"As it stands now there is no one on the commission to represent the milk consumers of Pennsylvania. If the commission is not abolished, I want men appointed to it who would think of the consumer, not just of the dealers and dairymen. As it is now operated the Milk Control Commission is strictly a price control board."

Holland said the commission was set up in 1935, declaring:

"It was supposed to see that the farmers got a fair price for their milk, that the dealers got a fair price and that the consumers were protected. But now the large dealers use Pennsylvania State University experts to present a lot of statistics about how much it costs to produce milk. The consumers have no expert. Why is it that some dairymen in Pennsylv-

Says UN Tension Is Noticeably Reduced

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP) — A United Nations official said tension in the current session of the United Nations Assembly is "noticeably reduced from what it had been in past sessions."

Speaking before students at Pennsylvania State University attending the annual Career Day of the College of Business Administration, Dr. Ralph J. Bunche said: "Patience and tolerance are prerequisites to the progress and advancement of international relations."

Dr. Bunche, director of the Trusteeship Department of the United Nations, said the overall look for harmony in the United Nations is "very encouraging."

Reader's Digest Will Accept Ads

NEW YORK (AP) — The Readers Digest is opening its pages to advertisers for the first time next April.

The monthly magazine, which boasts of a 10,000,000 circulation, has never in its 33-year existence permitted advertising in its American editions.

A spokesman said yesterday the reason for the move was rising publishing costs and the fact it had tripled in size since the publication was founded.

Reader's Digest has been accepting advertisements in all 29 international editions. The publication said it was forced to seek increased revenue beyond that received from the sale price of 25 cents.

The magazine spokesman said the readers were asked in a recent poll whether they would rather have ads in the magazine or an increase in price. They chose the former, the spokesman added. Reader's Digest has always sold for 25 cents.

vania sell their milk cheaper in Ohio than they do in Pennsylvania."

Holland, who is a public relations representative for the CIO, said milk consumers are "paying through the nose" in Pennsylvania. He declared:

"Why you can buy milk for 16 to 18 cents a quart in Ohio and the same milk costs you 25 a quart in Pennsylvania. Why?"

Asked what would happen to milk prices if the commission is abolished, Holland replied:

"You don't have to have anything in its place. The law of supply and demand would take care of the situation. A lot of people think the commission protects the health of the community. That isn't so. The Department of Health has the laws to do that."

The commission members serve for six years. The chairman is Joab Mahood of Troy, whose term expires May 1, 1959. Other members are Charles J. O'Loughlin of Alliquippa, appointed to serve until May, 1959, and Benjamin H. Welty of Waynesboro, whose term has been stipulated to expire at the end of the 1955 legislative session. Mahood is paid $10,500 annually and the others $10,000.

Queen Mother Is Guest At Dinner

WASHINGTON (AP) — Britain's Queen Mother Elizabeth got a break Friday. There was nothing on her schedule to keep her from sleeping late at the White House.

For the past nine days the Queen Mother has been "doing New York" in as near tourist style as top royalty can. She arrived here Thursday aboard President Eisenhower's plane, The Columbine, to be a guest of the Eisenhowers for

Irish Embassy Sends Translation

Gettysburg Battlefield guides now have an official translation for the inscription "Faugh a Ballagh" on the monument to the 28th Massachusetts Regiment, near the Wheatfield, on the Gettysburg Battlefield.

Robert D. Fidler, Gettysburg High School teacher and part-time battlefield guide, wrote to the Irish embassy at Washington for a translation and received a reply this week from Second Secretary Robert McDonagh.

"Clear the Way is the correct translation," Mr. McDonagh wrote. "It cannot be translated 'God Be with You' or, as far as I know, anything else."

A brilliant dinner was given for her at the White House Thursday night by her hosts. This afternoon she faces one of the toughest ordeals for any celebrity: She will be honored at a mass reception put on jointly by 10 Washington news, radio and photographers organizations.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department today raised the tentative total of American battle casualties in the Korean War to 142,091. This was 24 more than the number reported on July 22.

RESOLUTION ON ATOMIC PLANS BEING READIED

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Western representatives today put final touches on a resolution seeking U.N. endorsement for President Eisenhower's plan for peaceful sharing of atomic energy as diplomats anxiously awaited Russia's reaction to the program.

The resolution—for submission to the U.N.'s 60-Nation Political Committee—was drafted last night by seven Western nations which have been negotiating on atomic energy.

Three Things Asked

It is expected to ask:

1. Full U.N. cooperation in developing the international use of atomic energy for peaceful purposes.
2. The U.N. to call an international scientific conference next year to discuss the possibilities of an atomic agency.
3. The conference to advise the U.N. on progress made towards peaceful atomic production by nations who have developed nuclear energy or have uranium resources.

A U.S. spokesman said the resolution was written by the United States, Britain, France, Canada, Australia, Belgium and South Africa. He said presentation of the document was being held up until some receive authorization from their governments to co-sponsor it.

Get Quick Start

The atomic debate got off to a quick start yesterday with an outline of the Eisenhower plan by U.S. Chief Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., and endorsements by Britain and Canada. But the discussion stalled off as everyone waited to see what the Russians would do. U.N. sources said if the Russians delay their reply, the political committee may have to turn to some other item on its crowded agenda and come back to the atomic issue later.

The main question appears to be whether Russia will insist on outlawing all nuclear weapons as a premise to taking part in any international atomic pool.

The Atomic Energy Commission has paid more than three million dollars as bonuses to finders of uranium deposits, says the National Geographic Society.

Jap Prime Minister Issues Red Warning

NEW YORK (AP)—Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida of Japan says the United States should not be deceived by the Communist peace offensive in Asia and that the Reds regard Japan as the "ultimate prize of their Pacific conquests."

In a speech to the Japanese Diet Friday night, Yoshida also said a stumbling block in his country's economic expansion is "widespread use of tariff barriers and import restrictions."

Yoshida was imprisoned by Japanese authorities during World War II as a pacifist and a liberal.

The Prime Minister was scheduled to leave today by plane for Albany, N.Y., to be a luncheon guest of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

BOY'S BREATHING STOPS TWICE BUT HE LIVES

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Three-year-old Nicky DeWitt is still alive although he was considered "medically dead" by his physician Wednesday and stopped breathing again Friday morning.

Nicky was bitten on the upper lip Wednesday by a cocker spaniel owned by Willie Pep, former featherweight boxing champion. George Dewitt, Nicky's father, is a nightclub comedian and neighbor of Pep.

The lip was badly torn and Nicky was taken to Victoria Hospital for plastic surgery. He was put under ether and as the operation was completed, the doctors noticed Nicky had stopped breathing.

Remains Critical

They opened Nicky's chest cavity and massaged his heart, Nicky began breathing again.

The doctors said the child "rocked along" the rest of the night, and by Thursday seemed to be "coming along," but Friday he stopped breathing again, although a slight heart action continued.

Emergency drug and oxygen treatment didn't start Nicky breathing again and he was rushed to Variety Children's Hospital and placed in an iron lung.

Nicky remained in a critical condition today.

Octopus cooked in its own ink is considered a delicacy in Portugal.

Taneytown PLAY GIVEN FOR PARENTS' STUDY GROUP MEETING

A play, "Scattered Showers," was presented Wednesday afternoon at the first regular meeting of the Parents' Study Group of the Taneytown Elementary School.

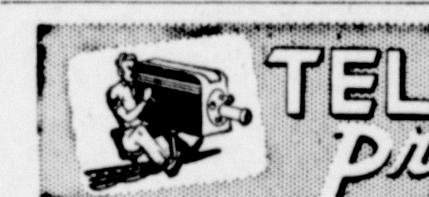

The play described how the behavior of three pre-school children was condition by the attitudes and practices of three mothers. The play explained how a "middle of the road" approach to the discipline of the child with love and affection playing the major part and discipline applied with moderation achieved better results than a continuous strict discipline, with little or no understanding, or a no discipline practice for fear of breaking a child's spirit, curbing his ambition or destroying his love for his parents.

The cast included Mrs. Charles Hopkins, Mrs. Kenneth Nussbaum and Mrs. Glen Stahl. Evelyn Maus directed the play. Miss Maus also outlined the duties of the home room mothers. The group of 35 mothers was welcomed to the meeting by Chairman Mrs. Clyde Wilhide.

Announces Services

Edwin Reid and mother, Mrs. Marlin Reid, left Tuesday for Plymouth, Mich., where Mrs. Reid will make her home with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Wilson.

Rev. Glen L. Stahl, pastor of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, has announced the following services for Sunday: Sunday School, 9 o'clock; church services, 10 o'clock. On Thursday evening the

HURLS GEMS AT HIS WIFE

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The first of seven persons who witnessed a diamond-throwing melee at a Halloween party took a lie detector test Thursday and the others will go through the same routine Friday and today.

Detective Barney Kaplan said Duncan McMartin of Bermuda threw about $100,000 worth of jewelry at his wife as a climax to the party and that a $25,000 diamond clip was missing.

All seven spectators agreed to take the test voluntarily, Kaplan said. They had stayed behind after most of the other 40 guests had departed the Brice Pinder home, where the McMartins were guests.

Detective Jack D. Taylor said those who took the test were Robert (Bunt) Bacon, socialite scion of a shipping firm; Esther Clair and Marilyn Hallett, two models; Mrs. Wilbur Cooke; Bernard MacDonald; Pinder; and a Negro maid who cleaned up the apartment next day.

Junior Choir will meet at 7 o'clock and the Senior Choir at 8 o'clock. William Miller is the director. Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Church Council. Wednesday, 7:30 o'clock. Mite Society meeting; Wednesday evening, 7:30 o'clock. Trinity Brotherhood meeting.

John Skiles, delegate, and Rev. Glenn L. Stahl, pastor, of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church attended the Western Conference of the Maryland Synod in Middletown, Monday.

The 25th annual convention of the Lutheran Sunday School Association of the Maryland Synod will meet today in the Second English Lutheran Church, Baltimore. Registration begins at 9 a.m.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Taneytown Fire Company will hold a "big party" this evening at 8 o'clock in the fire hall.

County detectives, said that White made a statement admitting he stabbed Flowers with a penknife in an argument over $5.

The Amiant had discharged crude oil at the Sinclair Refining Co. at nearby Trainer and left for Venezuela Wednesday.

Apparently the crime was committed in Delaware Bay, and the ship's captain, H. A. Warrick, returned after midnight to Marcus Hook where police arrested White. Capt. Carl Lawrence of the Delaware state police claimed jurisdiction for Delaware on the ground the killing occurred while the vessel was off the Delaware coast.
